

Study Title:	Study of Factors Effecting Clinical Trial Completion for Primary or Recurrent Invasive Uterine Cancer
Scientific Title:	GOG 0247 - Study of Patient, Physician, and Nurse Factors Associated With Entry Onto Clinical Trials and Completion of Treatment in Patients With Primary or Recurrent Invasive Carcinoma of the Uterine Corpus or Uterine Cervix
Department and/or Specialty:	Gyn – Uterine Cancer
Investigator:	Michael Thompson, MD, PhD
Contact Information:	Chanda Miller 292-928-5539
Purpose:	Determining how patients make decisions about participating in a clinical trial may help doctors plan clinical trials in which more patients are willing to participate and are satisfied with their decision to participate. This clinical trial is studying patient, physician, and nurse factors associated with entry onto clinical trials and finishing treatment in patients with primary or recurrent uterine, endometrial, or cervical cancer.

PROHEALTH CARE
RESEARCH INSTITUTE